Participation in 3rd V.S. Mallar Memorial Legal Aid Competition

15 November 2024

VVM's G. R Kare College of Law, Margao Goa participated in 3rd V.S. Mallar Memorial Legal Aid Competition 2024. The competition provided the Legal Aid Society the opportunity to extend and expand its wings to spread literacy and promote awareness of legal aid in novel and innovative ways. As participant of this Competition the members of Legal Aid Society collectively engaged themselves in the planning, execution and conduct of the six core deliverables namely, Speed Mentoring, Legal Podcast and FAQ Drafting, Street Play, Jan Sunwaii, Reel Making and Legal Assistance Lab.

This creative campaign inspired and infused the participants with the vigor of enthusiastic legal activism. Beneficial community engagement helped sensitize the participants, allowed them the ground to unleash their creative side to promote social responsibility and raise legal awareness, provided them ample scope to understand the spirit of the Constitutional mandate on Legal Aid and Legal Services and the professional commitment associated with advocacy.

Speed mentoring awareness sessions were conducted in High Schools and Higher Secondary Schools in the different Talukas of the State of Goa especially on the theme of Child Safety and the POCSO Act, which was the theme of the Legal Aid Society, including other topics of socio-legal relevance. A total of 19 speed mentoring sessions were held by the various Legal Aid Cells under the guidance of the Legal Aid Cell, Faculty In-charge.

Street plays and Skits were performed in English and regional languages namely, Konkani and Hindi and were carried out at strategic locations to garner maximum reach out of the public on socio-legal topics affecting day to day life, such as Menstrual Hygiene, Child Safety and Road Safety, Consumer Protection, Waste Management etc. A total of 18 Streets Play were performed.

Reel Making component aimed to engage youth in promoting legal awareness and literacy in digital mode through creative short reels on socio-legal issues. Legal Aid Society, through its Legal Aid Cells, contributed 27 reels. These reels highlighted topics such as the Right to Education, Child and Juvenile Rights, and Rights of Elderly Citizens, emphasizing the commitment to enhancing legal literacy and social justice.

A series of Jan Sunwaiis were majorly held in rural areas and also within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Corporation of Margao with the support of Legal Experts, NGOs, Panchayats, Clergy and DLSA. This initiative provided us the opportunity to hear and address issues concerning children, women, maintenance, senior citizens, environment and property analyzed by various stakeholders and suggestions for reducing punishment in consensual POCSO cases, a call for balanced Justice is being worked on.

Legal Podcast promote legal awareness, share insights, analyze trends and explore complex issues thereby ensuring reach through the medium of social media to stay informed and adaptable to ever-evolving legal landscape. Three episodes of Legal Podcast were held Women and Child , Understanding Legal Aid and Free Legal Services in India and Consumer with guest experts in the relevant field.

The Legal Assistance Lab/Legal Litigation Lab offered us the opportunity to provide legal assistance to the general public. Informative sessions were held in rural and remote areas with the aim to educate the public especially the marginalized segments, where legal resources are limited, about rights and legal options and the methods of dispute resolution and mechanism. Services in the nature of consultation, case evaluation, necessary representation and support to the needy were provided. This enabled the aggrieved to navigate the legal processes such as filing applications, applying for schemes or any other public benefits thereby ensuring access to legal representation and justice. The student volunteers also conducted surveys and based on the survey, along with the assistance of Department of Social Welfare assisted in the documentation process of senior citizens cards. Awareness videos created on rights of senior citizens were disseminated through the medium of social media platforms of the institution. Sakhi One Stop Centre is a scheme of Ministry of Women and Child Development, the student volunteers assist at the Sakhi OSC South Goa in promoting awareness on rights of women and children through legal awareness camps and street plays in various Talukas in South-Goa and also assist the documentation and filing process.
